

Sanaa Hammoud

Sanaa Hammoud is an accomplished Journalist and Communications Consultant.

General Director of Faraa Maai – to promote Independent Arab Media and Senior Radio host, Nas Radio Senior Radio host for five weekly main news programs.

She started her independent path after a rich, diverse career in both law and media. Hammoud is the founder and chief editor of “Faraa Maai” – The Independent Arab Media platform as well as a Senior Host at Nas Radio. She also worked at the Negotiations Support Unit (NSU) in Ramallah and Jerusalem as a Senior Communications Advisor. Prior to that she worked for Al-Jazeera News Channel in Washington DC as an Assistant Producer covering the 2004 US Presidential Elections. In Israel, she worked for Ben-Or Communications as a Project Coordinator, as well as for Ittijah: The Union of Arab Community Based Associations as Regional Project Coordinator. For Mossawa: The Advocacy Center for Arab Citizens of Israel, Hammoud worked as a Knesset lobbyist, and for the Association for Civil Rights in Israel as a Legal Intern. At the age of 20, she anchored a weekly television program on a major TV Station. Hammoud holds a Master of Arts in Journalism and Public Affairs from the American University in Washington DC, for which she was awarded a Fulbright scholarship and an L.L.B. (Bachelor of Arts in Law) from the Interdisciplinary Center at Herzliya, Israel. She is fluent in Arabic, Hebrew and English.